

World Language Week Shared Calendar

March 30th

- UNK World Language Lab opens for students to take the STAMP test to apply for the NSoBL (2:30 pm). Register here by March 25th. The cost is $20.

March 31st

- World Language Week Begins
- 1st NDE Press Release for 2022 WL Week and acknowledge
 - UNK, UNO, and Doane University for attaching retroactive credits to the NSoBL recipients (requirements may apply)
 - OPS for integrating the NSoBL in their system
 - Easyway International LLC, Shaanxi Commerce Representative Office and Weinan City Commercial Representative Office in the Midwest of the United States for supporting the NSoBL
- UNL Language Fair at Student Union

April 2nd

- "Technology-enhanced Choice Boards in Chinese Language Classrooms" Webinar by Dr. Le Kang (1:00 - 2:00 pm). Register here.
- UNK World Language Lab opens for students to take the STAMP test to apply for the NSoBL (9:00 am) Register here by March 25th. Cost is $20.

April 3rd

- "Nebraska Seal of Biliteracy: Your Language Passport to Opportunities" Webinar by Stephanie Call and Chrystal Liu (3:00 pm - 4:00 pm). Register here.

April 4th

- 2nd NDE Press Release for 2022 WL Week to announce the Distinguished WL Scholar Award winners.

April 6th

- "Innovative Ideas to Foster the 21st Century Mind" Webinar by Mrs. Ying Jin, 2018 ACTFL teacher of the year. Register here.

Omaha Public Schools are celebrating World Language Week in their buildings as well. For more details, please check their events.

University of Nebraska-Kearney has planned a whole week of celebration for the world language week. Please check their calendar here.

<https://www.facebook.com/NDE.WL/>

educator

worldlanguage/

@NDE_WorldLang